President's Tidings Jo Bienvenu

Dear Beloved AAD Members,

Geez, it is unbelievable it is first day of November already! I've lost track of what I have done lately, ha! Actually, we poured our full attention to AAD with new doors and ADT alarm for security reason. After they are completed, we will shift our focus on a new cooler, but we can't say when yet. We had a few special events at AAD this month. We are delighted to say that Homecoming weekend was a smashing success with 447 people in attendance. As always, it is very nice seeing old friends and new faces. I want to emphasize you that I do not forget any new face I met, but I do not always remember names. Hope you understand that I try to match names and faces. Maybe I can say I am senile, ha! Thank you so much for showing up at the AAD to show your full support for the Deaf Club. I also want to recognize our board members for their hard work. Without you all, I am hopeless and helpless.

Can you guess what I've decided to do?... I decided to run for the 2019-2021 President. Some of you probably didn't realize I have hawk's eyes as I spotted one of my friends commenting her concern to her friend, "Jo is 76 and old!" I chuckled and when she walked past me, I stopped her and told her that I agree may be old, but I feel active and energetic for my age (but nowhere close to when I was 25 years old). We have wonderful members and supporters so I feel very positive carrying another term. Yes I have been keeping myself very busy and the Board Members' patience and help have been wonderful... I hope you can see that quality in our board members, too. Some people are in such a hurry to get to the good life that they dream of and they often rush right past it. Some people are very busy with their children and babies. Some people are new in love that they heed to each other. Some people are homebodies (I wish I am one of them but I try to rest every night and on Sundays). FYI, when we had young children, we did not go to club as often as we like so we understand them perfectly. So please don't feel guilty for not coming to AAD! All we ask from you is your renewal membership in order to keep AAD strong and be able to pay bills. My daughter, Penny planned to rent a "clubhouse" for her birthday party, she went online to compare prices and found out that it is $100+ per hour for most clubhouses. She was surprised so of course, with her AAD membership, she is renting AAD for only $100 for 4-5hours. Isn't the deal cheap and very sweet?

If you believe in yourself and are determined not to fail, then you will succeed. Each of you are unique! Be yourself, nobody can do it better than you. Happy Thanksgiving!
