President's Tidings Jo Bienvenu

My Dearest AAD Members, Friends and Families-

It is with a heavy heart to let you know that AAD had a break-in recently with vandalism and stolen valuable items such as iPads, iPod, TVs and a lot of liquors and beer (even peanuts if you care). Apparently, those invaders had a great party somewhere else. We are disappointed, sad and heartbroken, but after getting support from community, we feel positive, loved and much better. You all are awesome and you all make us happy. We are blessed to have you all as our wonderful friends. Thank you for your beautiful hearts.

Last Friday I posted on Facebook and Instagram asking for help the next day at 9AM - 12PM, assuming it would take long, and to our amazement and relief, many volunteers came to help. It warmed my heart and put the biggest smile on my face all day. With everyone's help, we finished within only 1.5 hour, unbelievable! They even were willing to carry 3 heavy fridges from the corner of the pavilion to the storage while several others worked in a big white storage. They rinsed off the dust on the plastic containers from the pavilion storage and put them on the shelf in the white storage. I tried to help but everyone seemed to make sure that I take a break and do not lift a finger so I took pictures of AAD friends who we all admire very much.

Truthfully, those who came truly made our AAD board members and members very happy and inspired. We want to thank each of you from the bottom of our hearts for your generous support. We all are very thankful for how you all pulled us through rough times.

We'd like to recognize and thank Alex Abenchuchan with The Daily Moth for coming to share our story. It is very much appreciated to be able to share our story on Facebook. Thank you, The Daily Moth.

Thank you for bringing the tots and a baby which brought us to smile. You all are very much appreciated. My goodness, I could go on more, but I guess you can see I can't thank you enough. I better shaddup before I make you fall asleep.

Much love and hugs,

President Jo
